The publisher regrets that the title of this essay review was incorrectly given as “The role of text in the historiography of science” in the printed issue. This title was not only incorrect, but also misrepresented the content of the paper. The correct title of the review should have been:

Modes of representation, working tools, and the history of mathematics

The article should hereafter be cited as:

Norma B. Goethe, Modes of representation, working tools, and the history of mathematics, Historia Mathematica 35 (3) (2008), 242–247; Erratum: 36 (1) (2009), 109.

We apologize most sincerely for this error.
